Please read and sign:

We understand that in order to preserve unity in our marriage and avoid an imbalance in our parenting, both the husband and the wife are expected to attend (with the exception of single-parent families). We have checked our calendar and have seriously considered our ability to faithfully attend this class. We understand that if we miss 25% or more of the classes, we may be advised to retake this class at a more convenient time. We also understand there is weekly homework required of us.
